TASTE OF CHINATOWN! CULINARY GUIDE

Lee Man is a Founding Judge of the Chinese Restaurant Awards, and a Contributor to Vancouver Magazine. Lee has reviewed and provided his Critics' Choice for over 25 restaurants in Chinatown. His lifelong love of Chinatown started in the late 1960's when his parents immigrated to Vancouver and found community and connection in this beautiful historic neighbourhood.

CHINATOWN TOP 10 DISHES

BUTTER BEEF

PHNOM PENH 244 E GEORGIA STREET

Beef thinly sliced into meltingly tender sheets and drowned in a vibrant pool of herbaceous nuoc cham.

DUCK NOODLE SOUP

CHINATOWN BBQ 130 E PENDER STREET

Roast BBQ duck over thick rice noodles; the clean broth becomes imbued with the scent of savory spices and the noodles slippery with duck fat.

TAJARIN

KISSA TANTO 263 E PENDER STREET *Michelin Starred

Egg yolk rich pasta—cut elegantly thin—reminiscent of classic Chinese alkaline noodles, with creamy miso sauce. Some fresh truffles shaved over the dish? take it!

BUN CHA HANOI

DD MAU 145 E PENDER STREET

Meat patties with proper char-grilled depth, rich and tender pork with bright and clean fish sauce broth - all with a huge tangle of warm rice vermicelli noodles.

CLASSIC OMELETTE WITH SALTED RADISH

BAO BEI CHINESE BRASSERIE 163 KEEFER STREET

*Michelin Recommended

Creamy tenderness, elevated by the bite of traditional Chinese salted radish. Paired with their kick ass fried rice for a terrific modern twist!

STEAMED DAI BAO

NEW TOWN BAKERY AND RESTAURANT

148 E PENDER STREET

Hot and fresh out the steamer, filled with chicken, pork, and salted egg yolks. Classic, deliciously satisfying.

STEAMED BBQ PORK RICE ROLLS

SUN FRESH BAKERY 245 KEEFER STREET

Fresh, thin rice rolls with a nice snap. Filled with savory sweet char siu and dressed with sweet soy.

THE FULL IRISH BREAKFAST

IRISH HEATHER 248 E GEORGIA STREET

An incredibly satisfying plate of mixed meats (including black pudding), eggs, baked beans, and roasted tomatoes and mushrooms.

SINGAPORE FRIED NOODLES

MING FONG FAST FOOD 263 E PENDER STREET

Cooked to order— a huge portion laced with bean sprouts, red and green peppers, and slivers of BBQ pork, gently spiced with yellow curry and full of fresh wok hei.

CHILLED TOFU WITH CENTURY EGGS

FAT MAO 217 E GEORGIA STREET

Smooth and creamy, chilled house-made tofu with a savory topping of dark-hued century eggs, bonito flakes, and a bright cilantro dressing.

CHINATOWN PASTRY WALK

Chinatown is full of fantastic bakeries and cake shops for you to sample both traditional and cutting edge pastries. Here are a few of our favourites.

FAMILY TIME IN CHINATOWN

It's hard to overstate just how important food is in Chinese culture. 'Have you eaten yet?' is a common greeting among family and friends. Whole weekends are built around family foody time, both shopping for treats and provisions as well as sitting down to enjoy huge, boisterous restaurants meals. It's a given that every generation possible will be present at the table. No one is left out. So pull up a seat and grab some chopsticks, it's time to eat!

LIGHTS AND LANTERNS

Take a walk through the 16-blocks of Vancouver's Chinatown illuminated by lights, lanterns and neon signs, guiding you to discover local favourites and hidden gems.

華埠掌故 CHINATOWN STORYTELLING CENTRE

The Chinatown Storytelling Centre is Canada's first permanent home for the stories of Vancouver's chinatown past and present. Its work focuses on the cultural revitalization of the historic neighbourhood. Located at 168 E Pender Street, the Storytelling Centre offers the story of Canada through the lens of Vancouver's Chinatown.

Enjoy 50% off on regular admission tickets during Taste of Chinatown! Free entry for youth (17 and under) throughout the weekend.

FAMILY-FRIENDLY ACTIVITIES

Join us for a family-friendly celebration to ring in the Year of the Dragon at the Chinatown Storytelling Centre. Activities suitable for all ages, and included with admission.

COLOUR YOUR LUCKY DRAGON

Join us for colouring laser-cut dragon magnets to attract prosperity, protection, and good health for the year ahead. You'll get to take home your one-of-a-kind dragon art for all to admire! First-come, first served, one dragon kit per person while supplies last.

*Saturday, February 10,
